

Глагол «to look»

Hi guys! In this article I'd like to tell you about this verb — «look». The point is this word is very popular in English, the same as the verb «get». There are three good phrases with the word «look» which are very important to know.

1. «to look after» — to take care about somebody.

This is an extremely important phrasal verb. Try to remember it.

Could you look after my son when I'm away?

I'll look after your dog if you want.

We should always look after our parents when they're old.

2. «to look for» — to search for something.

If you want to find something you can say for example:

I'm looking for my textbook. Did you see it?

I'm looking for a new job.

3. «to look at» — to have a look at something, to see something.

When I started learning I was always saying «look on» and my tutor corrected me everytime. It's wrong. Properly to say «to look at something».

I'd like to look at your painting.

Look at me, please!

That's it. In the Russian part of this article you'll find some more phrasal verbs with the verb «look».

Keep learning English and take care!
