Если не поняли собеседника

Hello my dear followers and just guests who's visited my blog about learning English for the first time. Here you'll find free learning material and some good pieces of advise from my own and successful experience. If you want to get all the new articles on your e-mail, please subscribe to the updates! Enjoy!

In this post I'd like to tell you about good phrases which are going to help you in case if you didn't hear or didn't understand something and you need to say about it to your conversation partner. I don't know like you, but when I started learning I used them in my speech very often, because I couldn't understand people well. And it's not surprising. It's clear that in the beginning we might have problems with our comprehension and we have to ask people to repeat what they're saying.

But even if you're not a beginner I hope you'll find something useful for you in this article!

Keep learning English and take care!
