

Реакция на новость. Часть 2

Hi my dear friends! How do you usually respond to any news from people? It depends on news, you can say. And you're right! Sometimes we get good news, sometimes they may be bad. So depending on this factor we should react suitably. Whether you speak Russian or English it doesn't matter. It works in any language.

In the article «Responding to news» I already gave you a list of good phrases which you can use in the conversation. In this post I'd like to add some more expressions to that list, dividing them to two categories: responding to good news and to bad.

Ok, it's clear with phrases to respond to news. And what about giving news to people? What phrase do you use? In fact, there are many good expressions in English which I'm going to share with you in this article also. Hopefully they'll be useful for you!

I want you to get good news only! Take care guys!
